Re: Taylor v. Honeywell International, Inc.
Case No. 10-cv-04659 SBA (JCS)

Dear Judge Spero:

By this letter, I request permission to appear telephonically on behalf of Honeywell International Inc. ("Honeywell") for the hearing on Honeywell's motion to compel the videotaped deposition of Albert Langelaar in Taylor v. Honeywell International, Inc., Case No. 10-cv-04659 SBA (JCS), on calendar for December 3, 2010 at 9:30 a.m. A telephonic appearance will save attorney time and travel costs because my office is located in San Diego.

If the request is granted, I will appear for Honeywell and be available on a direct land line number, 858-720-7990. I understand that I will need to be in my office on standby from 9:30 a.m. until the Court calls me to connect me to the hearing. I also understand that I am not to use speaker phone during the telephonic court appearance.

Should any other party to the motion to compel hearing make a similar request for a telephonic appearance, my office will provide a conference call line for all parties and the Court to dial into.

Respectfully,

Dated: Nov. 24, 2010

Ellen Nudelman Adler
